

Figure S2. Maps of the environmental data used for the Alps. The four maps correspond to altitude (m), mean annual precipitation (mm), mean annual minimum temperature (°C) and environmental distance to the centre of the niche (OMIp). The OMIp estimates were calculated in the environmental space of each species independently and were then collected to build this map.